MARILYN H. SANDOVAL

NOV 5, 1936 - OCT 23, 2013

Sandoval(Wesolowski), Marilyn H., 76, died in her Miami home on October 23rd and is now reunited with her son Mark, together in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. Marilyn was born in Cicero, Illinois. She graduated from Lourdes Academy in Chicago. Met her husband Cesar shortly after he graduated from UMiami and had returned to Chicago. They married and moved to South Miami. She joined the Women's Guild at St Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church. As Ways and Means chairperson, her fund raising activities benefited the new parish as well as making many new friends.

After raising six children she joined with her husband in 1975 and started the motorcycle dealership Palmetto Motorsports. She worked as office manager there for many years. Her charm and joyful attitude with customers and employees contributed to the success of the business and that joyful atmosphere continues at their shop to this day.

Marilyn is survived by Cesar, her husband of 57 years, daughters Deanna and Kristi, sons Eric, Todd and Bret, her brother Vincent, two son-in-laws Ryan & Cary, daughter-in-law Terri, five grand-children Jenna, Ciara, Chad, Miranda & Parker. She was devoted to her family and cherished her friendships with laughter, humor and understanding. Marilyn was entertainment, merrymaking, the life of the party. Her quick wit and humor was enjoyed and will be long remembered. Her death will be sorely missed by her family and friends in Miami, Steamboat Springs and many motorcycle dealers throughout the USA.

The celebration of her life will be mass at St Thomas the Apostle church in South Miami on Saturday October 26 12:00PM

Services and entombment will be held on Friday Nov. 1st at Resurrection Cemetery, Justice, Illinois. In lieu of flowers:

Covenant House, PO Box 39282, Ft Lauderdale, Fl. 33339-0282
