Grant, remember us standing in line at the school cafeteria?we would thought life would go on forever. We learned, lived, and laughed all through-out the years together. The years went by into molding us to what we are now. Grant, you became an honorable and trustworthy friend with a good heart and terrible jokes. To those who did not know the real you, they too will miss your company. We had a great time reminiscing and working together.....always. You will never be forgotten Grant.....I hope you're listening to the great Foo Fighters in the sky!.....miss ya Man

Rest in peace Grant. My husband has shared so many stories about his time with you overseas. Although I never met you, you will always hold a place in my heart for being such a special friend to Tommy. You are missed very much.

I just found out today the news. Jose called me and told me the sad news it hit me hard. I have been emailing and calling him for months and no response. I first met Grant in Iraq. When I first met him I would have never guessed 2 yrs later we would be such good friends. Our friendship grew when it was just me and him in Afghanistan. We hung out all the time, we worked side by side. He was a hard worker. We did kick back and chill to. When I told him I was getting married he wanted to come to the wedding he was so happy. I have so many good and funny memories with him. Some thought he was mean but he is just like me so it was funny. Me, him and Jose would go sneak off and get smoothies at the boardwalk. We would go and eat every Sunday. I miss you so much brother.

Man... I am just learning this news now. I am saddened at the fact that Grant is no longer with us, but I am grateful having known Grant. I spent some time with Grant in Afghanistan. Grant was a unique guy. He NEVER ate at the DFAC, he always ate out or cooked in his room. He would get these care packages from home with all sorts of food and would run down his menu for me. I was a little envious, :) We were both the same age only he was born in May and I was born in November, thus making him the "old man" in our group. And, I never let him forget that. These and many more memories of the time Grant was in my life are forever in my mind and heart. I'll miss you buddy...

I have come to know Grant in the past few years because of his relationship with my daughter, Paula. I grew very quickly to love him and I am brokenhearted to hear this sad sad news. We spent some time together this past Christmas with Grant. I am so shocked and saddened to know I will not see him again. May God send peace and comfort to his family. We miss you very very much. I will always love you Grant as I mentioned in my last e-mail to you.

I am shocked and so saddened by this news. Grant was a friend of mine for over 30 years... there were down times when we did not talk but the last 3 years we spent a lot of time together and mostly laughed and had fun...I miss him horribly and pray his family will find peace very soon. God Bless you Grant...I will always love you...I hope you can see this and you smile a big smile, just for me...R.I.P. my friend!!!

I've known Grant for 9 years. Due to recent events in his life (Family indifferences, heartbreak) he spent quite a bit of time at my home over the last few months allowing us the opportunity to become the best of friends. We would Hang out & talk, laugh, and sometimes even cry (usually over a bottle of kettle one) Lol. Grant was a good man, & my best friend & He is greatly missed....My wife and I went to Deerfield to visit him. He took us to the pier where a young man had accidentally caught a bird with his fishing pole. No one would help the kid so Grant and I came to his rescue and freed the bird. When we were done he kept smiling and said "God seen us do that"..... Grant was a believer and he is in God's kingdom."Love is a gift God gives us, someone to love he loans us"

Hi Ken...I just saw this...thank you so much for contacting me...I wanted to do the same with you but wasn't sure you would come back to the sight...you have no idea how happy it makes me that you reached out...Grant was very, very special to me and this whole thing is tearing me up like you can't imagine...especially since we were sorta on the outs since Christmas...I would love to talk to you, and meet you and your wife. Yes, please, lets get together I would love to meet you and yours...my Mom is here this weekend to help me get thru this so maybe one evening during the week or next weekend...my number is 954-684-6129. My Mom loved Grant very much too so we could probably do this weekend too, just let me know. I did just leave you a v/m at about 9:30. I look forward to hearing from you...Paula
