Betty was the sweetest woman I've met and we shared laughs together at Grande's on Fridays. I really wanted to adopt her as we both had things in common. I know she was the best Mom next to my own. She would help me through issues with my Mom being terminally ill. What a coincidence that Betty and My Mom left us the same day. Both in heaven not suffering. To the family you were blessed with person who only saw the good in people. I miss her so much. With my deepest sympathy to the Highfill family. Pat CogulFriend
