Dearest Joe & Gayle--I cannot begin to imagine how difficult the loss of your daughter is, but I want you to know that my whole heart is with you now and always. I remember so well the family parties when Monica was running around, laughing with all the other kids, and I would look at those huge dark eyes and glossy hair, and think "what a beautiful child!" And it was the same as she grew; so animated, talking and smiling and full of laughter as other people mentioned. And I know these are the memories you will hold most dear as well--these times of the life you all had together remain the same--they are unchanged. Everything that you were to each other you are still! As you reflect on what has happened, know that it is understood that both of you need time for tears--time to heal your own hearts--time to just "be." But Monica's burdens are lifted--now she is free. She found her peace, remember that always. And although her leaving has left a space in your hearts, fill that space with recollections of JOY--the sunshine she would want you to have in your lives every time her name comes to mind. Deepest sympathies, peace and love to all, Sherri (& Jim) Anderson (We will be making a donation to the house/program in which she was involved to honor Monica's life and the wonderful parents she recognized--Joe and Gayle)
