LYNN ELLEN PEARSON WILSON

JUL 6, 1961 - JUL 27, 2014

Lynn Ellen (Pearson) Wilson, 53 passed away peacefully on July 27, 2014. Lynn resided in Kendall, and was previously a long time resident of Key Biscayne. She had been a 35 year cancer survivor and overcame much adversity during her life. Though Lynn was not expected to survive her 19th birthday, she graduated from Florida State University, enjoyed travel and spending time with family, and married and had two children. Lynn was known for her artistic and creative abilities, and despite the challenges she faced from her numerous brain surgeries, with the help and support of her loving mother she operated her own thriving floral business on Key Biscayne for many years.

Lynn's greatest joy in life was being a mom, and God blessed her with two wonderful children whom she loved and treasured with all of her heart. Lynn was survived by her two children, Paige Elaine Wilson (19) and Zachary Curtis Wilson (15); her father, Thomas C. Pearson; brothers, William M. Pearson (Leslie) and Thomas C. Pearson II; aunts and uncles, Sally Brody (Cliff), Suzie Falci (Jerry) and Nancy Pearson; nephews, William T. Pearson, Nicholas S. Pearson and Alec M. Pearson; and many cousins. Lynn was preceded in death by her mother Shirley L. Pearson, and her uncle Richard M. Pearson.

Lynn will be affectionately remembered for her amazing strength, courage and perseverance, and the outgoing and positive attitude that she always had.

The family will be receiving friends on Sunday, August 3rd, from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 pm followed by a Celebration of Life Service at 3:00 pm at Van Orsdel Funeral Home – Kendall. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Dear Aunt Linnie, It is with sadness that we must say goodbye to you, but it is comforting knowing that you can finally rest in peace. When I think about you, and the memories I have, I can't help but admire your strength and willfulness. I like to think that you are relaxing and enjoying yourself with my Grandma Shirley up there in heaven. Your kind heart has touched every one who has known you over the years and you will be missed. Dear Paige and Zach, I can only imagine what you must be feeling and am so sorry for your loss. I know that your mother has left some of her great strength and courage with you, and you can use this to move forward in life. I miss you both and am thinking of you/praying for you. Love, Alec Pearson

We feel very lucky to have had Lynn as a niece. She was special. We loved her and truly will miss her, her giggle, her smiley face, her ability to laugh at herself, her kindness, her strength, her will to live, and her chatty ways. She never met a stranger often engaging in a conversation with that person. She was well known at the Palace and the Yacht Club among many other places for her friendliness. One example of her laughing at herself was when she was riding her bike across the Florida State campus she rode under a tree and her wig got caught on a tree branch. She said several students saw it and didn't know what to do until Lynn laughed. We laughed together many times over that incident as she retold the story. We must thank Bill and Leslie Pearson, her brother and sister-in-law, for their constant care and kindness to Lynn. Also we must thank her 2 caregivers, Margarita and Reyna. They went way beyond just caring for her. They loved her as did her family. Lynn's children were very important to her. We were always amazed and pleased how Paige starting at a very young age helped her Mother overcome her daily challenges, good job Paige! You have become a very responsible young lady and your Mother and Grandmother would be very proud. Zach, your Mom talked about how handsome and nice you are. We hope Lynn's strength and pleasant ways will be passed on to her children. Lynn will forever be in our thoughts and hearts. Aunt Sally and Uncle Cliff

Aunt Linnie, While it pains me to write this, I know you are in a better place now. And I'm happy that you are finally able to rest in peace. Your ability to overcome every obstacle thrown at you was a testament to your true strength. And to Zack and Paige, I'm so sorry for this loss. Losing a family member is never easy, especially a parent. But take solace in the fact that you both have every bit of your mother's strength in each of you. So keep your heads up and try to remember the good times. Love, Nick Pearson

Dear Paige and Zachary, I will remember your mom as a darling, vivacious little girl all dressed up at our wedding many years ago; then all grown up and headed to collage--now a beautiful young woman with gorgeous honey blonde hair and sparkly eyes--fun loving and compassionate; then as a mom so proud of you two and concerned for you welfare. She is at peace now and that helps the pain of our lose. Love, Aunt Susie

As Linnie's cousin I was proud to share her middle name with her!! I was sad to hear that Lynn passed away but comforted that she is free of her failing body. I always enjoyed seeing Lynn in Florida and on our family reunion trips. Those are wonderful memories. I was always amazed at how she overcame her brain tumor and had such a desire to live despite her obstacles. She always was so sweet and kind. She spoke so lovingly of her mom, Shirley, and her kids, Paige and Zach. May you have peace knowing she is reunited with Shirley. She will be missed. Sending prayers to all of you at her memorial service. With love, Ellen (Falci) Laubusch

Lynnie (Paige and Zach), I will miss you tons! You have been an amazing example to us all. You have been strong, positive and loving through it all. Always concerned about others and especially your two beautiful children. When I visited with you in January you had such a strong impact on me again. Here you were ill and weak and your only concern was your children and if they were OK. A loving, caring person to others instead of worrying about yourself. You are a prime example of what is means to be a mom, love and conquer. Thank you for being a fun and loving cousin. I have many stories that make me crack up regularly. I will always love you, miss you and respect you. XOXO, Cousin Sheri P.S. - Paige and Zach - your mom always loved Vermont and wanted to bring you guys up to visit. Our door is open to you always! Great colleges up here too. Shelby and Shane would love it too. Aunt Sally has my number.
