As a music teacher new to the area and new to the audition process for all state choir, Barbara reached out and was so kind to me. I will miss her friendly greetings each year at FMEA in Tampa. I am so sorry for our loss.

Mrs. Kingman, you will be missed by so many people. Thank you for all the memories you've given my family - between playing with me for my HS solos, joking around & playing together in the pit orchestra, all of those years Samantha spent with you in Choir.... the list goes on. Thank you for being that person who never failed to say hi with a smile whenever you passed me in the hallways. I really enjoyed sitting & talking with you at FMEA a few years ago, you had so many good things to say and advice that was really helpful. You have always been an amazingly sweet woman and I am forever grateful. You will be greatly missed by all of the people whose lives you've touched. Give a hug to Mr. Safreed for all of us! This isn't goodbye; this is see you later. RIP.

Barbara and I are childhood friends from Ballast Point Baptist Church. We made many wonderful memories together and was so glad to re-unite through FB. May the LORD bless all the Satterwhite and Kingman families as you gather for Barbara's Home going celebration. Barbara had made the decision to accept Jesus as her Saviour long ago and she is at home with the LORD now, and we will see her again in Heaven one day! :-))Praying for you all, love, Deanna Waggoner Lynam

Barbara and I grew up going to Ballast Point Baptist Church, going to camp was such a great time being with Christians and just having fun. We also went to high school together. Lost contact when she moved to Miami, but hooked up again on Facebook. From all I read Barbara was truly a warrior for God and played her music beautifully. Is is truly a child of God. She will be missed. Love

I lost touch until recently with my sweet cousin, Barbara. We were very close , spending most of the summers together while we were young. One thing that has never changed is that beautiful smile. Can't you just hear that piano playing in heaven now ?! She will be missed by so many. You're at peace with our Lord now Barbara. Love you, Pam

Her beautiful musical talent, her caring spirit and her love for The Lord which was so evident. Her legacy is her faith imparted and shared with so many, and her family. A godly woman, you will never be forgotten Mrs. Kingman??
