MARION LINCOLN HODGSON

JUL 7, 1922 - JUL 10, 2015

Marion Lincoln Hodgson, 93, a long time resident of Key Biscayne, passed away in her home peacefully into the arms of the Lord, surrounded by her four children and extended family on July 10, 2015. Daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. George Washington Lincoln. Beloved wife of the late William J. Hodgson. Devoted mother of Donald L. Frazer, Jr. of San Diego, CA, Alan D. Frazer and his wife Candace of Harvard, MA, Joan V. Frazer of Key Biscayne, FL and Kirk S. Frazer and his wife Bobbee of Falmouth, MA. Loving grandmother of Sarah, Rebecca and Kirk Frazer; and Brit and Olivia Moller, children of Donald L. Frazer, Jr. Sister of the late George Lincoln and the late Edith Lincoln DuJardin. Also survived by several nieces and nephews. Marion was born and raised in Bala Cynwyd, PA, July 7, 1922. This is where she grew up and became a legal secretary until her marriage in 1944 to Donald L. Frazer. Shortly after the birth of their first child, Donald, the family relocated to Montevideo, Uruguay in continuance of her husband's career with Westinghouse. In 1957 after ten years in Uruguay, Marion returned to the United States with four children in tow. The family settled in Beach Haven on the Jersey shore. In 1961, Marion married William J. Hodgson, an entrepreneur and Mayor of Ship Bottom, on Long Beach Island, NJ where the family lived for many years. In 1987, their winter home in Key Biscayne since 1972 became Marion and Bill's permanent residence. Marion's interest in civic affairs took full fruit, often in leadership positions in the community. She was on the board of Commodore Club East for twenty-four years, serving as president for 15 years. Marion served as president of the Episcopal Women's Club of St. Christopher's By-the-Sea Episcopal Church. She was president of the Key Biscayne Republican Women's Club, once a Florida delegate to a Republican national convention. She was an active member of the Key Biscayne Women's Club and served on the Tax Committee of Key Biscayne for several years. Marion and Bill also enjoyed many years as members of the Key Biscayne Yacht

Mrs. Hodgson will be remembered by me as the loveliest mother and wife and homemaker of any of my friends' mothers. I remember her as being extremely kind, devoted to her family and a wonderful mistress to her family of various animals. I was fortunate enough to have met her through my very dear friend and college classmate, Joan Frazer, a most loving daughter whom I am certain brought her mother great comfort and happiness. My sympathy goes out to her immediate and extended family.
