Santa Pallonari

NOV 14, 1915 - JAN 21, 2009

P ALLONARI

Santa passed away peacefully at the age of 93 on January 20 in Hollywood, Fla. She was a loving wife, mother, sister, grandma, great grandma, aunt, and friend who lived a full life and was well loved. She was predeceased by her husband of 49 years, Rinaldo Pallonari. She leaves behind their children RoseAnn Yearick (John), Ronald Pallonari (Jan); grandchildren John Yearick, Jr. (Claudia), Kristin Yearick; and great grandson, Johnny Yearick. Before moving to Miami in 1951, Santa lived in Bayonne, NJ. She was blessed with a beautiful soprano voice and was a welcome addition to the choirs of Flagler St. Baptist and University Baptist Churches. Her focus was always on her family and she was the glue that kept her extended family together, even though they were separated by many miles. Santa is also survived by her sisters, Lena Calcaterra and Ann Cerchio, both of Bayonne, NJ, and many nieces and nephews. Visitation will be from 9:30 to 10:30 AM, to be immediately followed by a memorial service, on Saturday, 1/24 at: Van Orsdel Coral Gables.

I am saddened by Santa's passing. She was such a bright spot in everyone's lives. I remember many occasions spent with her and the family, and she was a vivacious, cheery person, with a beautiful voice. She will be missed by all, but at last she will be reunited with her beloved husband.##imported-begin##Carol Busk##imported-end##

We are saddened by the passing of Santa. Doesn't seem quite possible that she won't be at the family holiday dinners where we used to see her. She was dancing away at the 2007 Thanksgiving gathering and having a grand time. We will miss her.##imported-begin##Susan and Yorgos Zazas##imported-end##

I am saddened by the passing of Santa, but joyful in knowing that she is with the Lord and reunited with Rinaldo too. It was a privilege to know both Santa and Rinaldo, good people.##imported-begin##Clive Fielding##imported-end##
