Jacquelyn Yde Alschuler

JUN 26, 1935 - JUN 27, 2009

Died Saturday, June 27 – one day after her birthday – after an extended courageous contest with cancer...an enormous loss for her family and friends. An award-winning Interior Designer, Jacklyn Rae Grove was born in Freeport, IL in 1935. Following her first marriage and birth of five children, she graduated with honors from Chicago's Harrington Institute of Design.

Arriving in Miami in 1981, Jackie was associated initially with two prominent local architects: with James Deen, as the first designer at Fisher Island, and with Robert Swedroe, in creating attractive public spaces, from Aventura to Destin.

Jacquelyn Yde's namesake multi-disciplinary interior and color design firm specialized in commercial and residential interiors, many featured in consumer and industry publications, along with her commentaries on color and light.

Past president of the Institute of Business Designers' Florida Chapter and a long-time member of ASID, her comprehensive redesign and new colors for the Metro-Dade County Auditorium “transformed its formerly drab interior into a dazzling Deco-Inspired theatrical setting,” according to Barbara Baer Capitman, Who lauded her “consummate articulation of the concert hall's distinctive architectural features.” ensuring recognition by the International Art Deco Society.

Her architectural color commissions included hotels and condominiums, schools and parking garages throughout South Florida, while her creative interiors highlighted more than a dozen Festivals of the Trees heres, along with assorted designer showhouses and similar events.

She is survived by her devoted husband Al Alschuler, whom she wed in 1999, their cherished cats and a host of caring friends, along with her five beloved children – Michael (Nancy) Yde; Michelle (Michael) Boden; Mark (Jan) Yde, and her grandsons Trevor and Jude; Matthew Yde; and Gregg (Stacy) Yde, and grandson Austin, as well as a brother, Barry Groves, and her step-children: Mari and David Alschuler and Mark

My sincerest condolences to you, Al, whom I did not have the opportunity to meet; to my cousin, Barry; and to Jacqui's children. Jacqui was a loving cousin, giving good advice to me as we grew up in Freeport. Jacqui and my mother had a special kinship, both having artistic gifts. I know my mother was very proud of Jacqui's accomplishments. Hopefully they are now sharing memories together.##imported-begin##Linda Eichmeier De Grand##imported-end##

I was a classmate of Jackie in High School and always felt she was one of the most pretty and friendliest gals in our class. I didn't know that she had such honors in her artistic field because I sort of lost contact with most of my classmates.You can be proud of her artistic talent and honors but especially for the values she instilled in her family.I did see her at a couple of our reunions but I wasn't at the last one.I hope your memories will help you through the rough days.##imported-begin##Kitty Rockey Baldwin##imported-end##

We were shocked at Jackie's passing. We were high school friends, and knew her children as babies. She announced her marriage to my husband and I in our car on the way to graduation. I will remember her always. Jean##imported-begin##Wes & Jean Luedeking##imported-end##

I am very saddened by the passing of Jackie. She and I were 'best friends' in high school in Freeport, and we even shared the same boyfriend. She was always a sweet, smiling, fun loving person and I will miss her e-mails that we shared during the past year. My sympathy to her beloved children, her husband, and her many friends.
