Long time friend of Mr. Karling and his family, through Cooper's Restaurant, 6505 Bird Road, from 1968-1995Mr. Karling was always happy to see me and talk to me during my visits in South Miami Hospital, I was glad to be of help in the transfer from the hospital to the Palace Rehabilitation Center, a place I did not like. I He was happy to see my grandson and me on our visits. I tried to give him hope.My Moto is, "Hope is our biggest helper in life."Left him hopeful and smiling the last time I saw him, on the afternoon of Friday, September 11, 2009.##imported-begin##Margit and Freeman Cooper, grandmother and grandson##imported-end##
