Dear Dean,Here is a Poem that I ran across recently which best expresses my sentiments."Your smile is gone forever, your hand I cannot touch, but I have many memories of one I loved so much.Your memory is my keepsake, with which I'll never part, GOD has you in his keeping, I have you in my heart".Fondly with Love, Aunt Lois##imported-begin##Aunt Lois##imported-end##

DEAN - DEAN - DEAN! WOW! I remember what a wild child you were, (it takes one to know one.) We had so much fun in the summers in Key West & all the family holiday get togethers. My favorite was going to granny's house. She would have really enjoyed your totally awesome Art work. I guess now you can show her yourself. As Granny would say, "WEE WEE WEE, ALL THE WAY HOME! Your FINALLY HOMNE COUSIN!!! Every night before I go to sleep, I look up in the sky & find the brightest star just twinkling away.(just like your beautiful smile & Gods glowinng love in your heart). I say a prayer for you, your family, especially your Mom (Moo). When you twinkle back, & know your happier than you've been in your whole life. FREE AT LAST! It is so nice to know that your one of Gods very special Angels. I know your watching over us all, especially MOO! Hugs & Kisses, Love Janice (Jack, Alan & Tippy too.) P.S. Save a spot for me.##imported-begin##Janice Kopplow Horton##imported-end##

Dear Dean, we had so much fun with you driving down to Key West with Dale and Joe and me, Roz. You made those delicious sandwiches in the townhouse for the drive and we ate them in the Honcho along with our rum and coke in the styrofoam container with the fat straws from McDonalds. That is my favorite memory of Miami from the 80's. You have a great family and they love you so much We do too. Love, Roz and Joe Hunter and kids (Kristina, Natalie and Ryan) Hope you have found peace, Dean. ##imported-begin## Joe and Rosalind Hunter ##imported-end##

My dear Uncle Dean, now you really know the meaning of Amazing Grace. I am sorry there wasn't more time to get to know each other here. I am so happy you came to KNOW Jesus! I am looking forward to everlasting life with you. "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have everlasting life." John 3:16 I really love you too! Aubrey ##imported-begin## Aubrey Pollard ##imported-end##
