John, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. Losing a mom is one of the toughest things we endure in this life, and I know that this is a really hard time for you. She was really blessed to have a son like you. Be assured that your love and great caring for her was surely a real assurance to her in her last days. I am truly grateful for our great friendship over the long years, and if I can help in any way, please just ask. Bill also sends his condolences. Sandy##imported-begin##Sandy Hutton##imported-end##
