My dear friend Shirley and to all the Williams',I just finished watching this lovely tribute to your husband, father, grandpa and friend. It brought back wonderful memories. I remember your your home, although it as chaotic as mine, a place of refuge and escape; the difference being the immense amount of love that your parents had for one another. I am very thankful for having had the opportunity to be around that for much of my youth and to bring that to my own marriage. In this time of sorrow, know that your dad's influence will be felt for many years to come. With the fondest of memories, Robin Hughes Wilkey##imported-begin##Robin "Hughes" Wilkey##imported-end##

I fondly remember the time when Gary first discovered the wonders of God's Word. He was so excited and hungry to know everything that God had for him to learn. Gary's family is a precious gift of God to all that had the privilege to know them. That gift does not come without much nurturing from loving and caring Christian parents. I know that Gary has now heard the words of our Lord that many of us patiently wait to hear "Well done my good and faithful servant." May God bless you all and be with you to comfort you in the coming days.

Gary was a very strong man, in every way. He knew what he believed and stood by that belief like a rock. I loved to see the beam in his face whenever he would smile. He had a smile that would touch deep down inside your heart. I loved sharing prayer time with him, as his love for the Lord was quite evident. I know he became a Christian later in life, but when he decided to follow the Lord, he did it with great passion. We have not seen Gary for years, but his loving memory will be with us forever. He made many imprints into our lives and will never be forgotten. We will stand with him, soon, in the Heavens. All our love to the Williams' family, as each one of them are very special to us. Dear Joan and family, When I first met you, Joan, and Gary, I was amazed that you had raised 6 children. So whenever I would see Gary, there is a scripture that would always come to mind, and that is Psalm 127 verse 5. Starting at verse 3: "Behold, children are a heritage from the Lord, The fruit of the womb is a reward. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, So are the children of one's youth Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them." And so, that scripture comes to mind now. I thought it so neat, Joan, when you told me you were reciting scripture as it came to your mind for Gary to hear. He heard, and I know he thought it was neat, too. What a blessing to have a godly wife. May the Lord richly bless all of you, in ways you can't even imagine. With much love, Peggy Kelly###imported-begin###Peggy Kelly###imported-end##
