Dear Aunt Celia, Our words cannot fully comfort you during this time of grief, nor can they express the sorrow felt over the loss of your husband and our Uncle Ken. But we know that God will wipe away all tears from our eyes. Our last memory of Ken was his smile and the time we all spent together back in August and September. Like you we will miss him a lot. We know that God will continue to comfort you as you try to cope with your grief and sorrow. We love you and we will be praying for you. Love, Richard and Joanna LaBastide##imported-begin##Richard LaBastide##imported-end##
