Uncle Ned & family, Auntie Margo as we know her will be missed. Although our guiding generation is slowly fading into the sunset their strength will carry on in us always. Thank you for the fond memories that will live on in our hearts forever. It's sad we are not with you, but know you are in our thoughts and prayers always. God Bless you##imported-begin##Bill , Lorraine, Neil, Nazera & Olivia##imported-end##

Dear Joe, Jackie , Greg and Michael, I feel blessed that I could be with all of you this past weekend and share in the services in Auntie Margo's loving memory. Joseph, thank you for all that you have done and that you still have ahead of you. Thank you to your wife and son's for their understanding of the time you have needed to be away from home. I will continue to keep you all in my thoughts and prayers. May God grant us all peace through our fondest memories of times spent with Auntie Margo and may she rest forever more in the arms of the angels. With love and Deepest Sympathy for your loss.##imported-begin##Barbara Niles##imported-end##

Dear Uncle Ned, My heart is broken for you and at the same time, filled with happiness that I was able to be there with you as we celebrated Auntie Margo's life with family and friends. The video tribute was so beautiful! It was heartwarming to see you smile as you watched it.....for sure you were comforted by fond memories and wonderful times you shared with Auntie Margo at home and in your travels together. You were a good husband and I know that Auntie Margo loved you with all her heart- you were everything to her. I pray that you will find peace in the days and weeks to come knowing that you did all that you could to be with her until the end. May God look after you with loving kindness and ease your pain and sorrow. I love you always.##imported-begin##Barbara Niles##imported-end##
