I had the pleasure of working with Ron in Atlanta for several years. He was a true gentleman with a kind heart and a wonderful sense of humor. The last time I saw him was when we played golf in Miami. He didn't bring his "A game" that day but he still enjoyed the day and laughed all the way around the course. I'll miss you Ronnie. I have not met Ron's family but I wish to convey to you my heartfelt sympathy. Ron was a treasured friend, co-worker, and my golf partner every Friday until he moved to Miami. Ron and I talked on the phone just about every week and traded stories about our work, our golf games, and the books we had recently read. We never failed to crack each other up. I will miss a friend who was witty, self-effacing, honorable, and generous. I know Ron is in a better place so I am not sorry for him. I am sorry for the many of us who will forever miss him.##imported-begin##Paul markes##imported-end##

Ron has been a friend for more than 22 years. He has been a part of our family as a friend and a next door neighbor. He was there at our wedding and the birth of our daughter. We worked together for many years and took vacations together. Ron was always up for having fun and I always felt good knowing I could call him and we would have a good laugh together. Ron made many friends in the Atlanta, Georgia area and the news of his passing traveled fast around town. We will surely miss having a friend like Ron.##imported-begin##Frederick Willey , Kathryn Willey and Mary K. Willey##imported-end##
