Dear Aunt Jane, Please accept my apologies. I was late getting the word, so this is a tardy note of condolence in the loss of Uncle Ed. I wish I could have gotten to know him better, but it seems the miles between us always got in the way. I truly enjoyed talking with him (and you) three years ago on the day of my mother's funeral in Clearwater. It made me wish That I'd been able to see him much more often. He was a good man. To me, that's the greatest compliment I could give any fine gentleman like Uncle Ed. I will remember him, as well as you and the whole Borger family, in my prayers. With love and sympathy, Jim, Carol & children##imported-begin##Jim Olson##imported-end##

Ed and Jane welcomed me to the family when I was dating Pat. I was not making much money but it made no difference to them, they made me feel welcome. But they did that for every one. I've known them now for 33 years, I don't consider them my in-laws but as my great friends and part of my family. I love them dearly. Rest in peace Ed, my dear friend.##imported-begin##Rich Small##imported-end##

My memories of Ed: Amazing love for family, life and especially Jane. Always there with a kind word or a funny story. Independent, strong, caring, family man who shares the rest of his amazing family with us. We were so blessed and lucky to have you in all of our lives. To all of your family we wish the best memories that can lighten their hearts and help the sadness fade. You have given us all a gift and that is the family bond that You and Jane created.xoxo##imported-begin##Diane##imported-end##

We're sending lots of love and hugs to all of you. Grandpa Borger was a kind, amazing man. I'll always remember the way he and Grandma Borger took us along at the Cape like we were their own grandkids...I was remembering a time they brought us to the beach to see sand sculptures and we all made sand pyramids...and of course the time Grandma rolled my arm up in the car and I fainted--but then they took such good care of me and taught us to play roulette! Thinking of you all! xoxo##imported-begin##Jenn Small##imported-end##
