My dearest Ms. Shiela. You are in a better place. You passed as peacefully as you lived life. Thank you for all the memories. Life is a book in volumes three- The past, the present, and the yet-to-be. The past is written and laid away, The present we're writing every day, And the last and best of volumes three is locked from sight - God keeps the key. Rest in peace. My deepest condolences to my dearest friends Shelley, June, Diana, Ethan and the remainder of the family. Always, MoTuck##imported-begin##Monica C. Tucker##imported-end##

Sheila, this was your prayer to Jesus. Dear Jesus, grant me the grace, strength, and courage to truly live the Gospel throughout my last days; the desire to fight and struggle toward your Holy Cross and my hopeful salvation. Bless me Jesus during my final moments, so that I may simply glorify your Will. Lord I can offer you nothing but my suffering and love. Even though I am wretched sinner, please take the last beat of my heart, my last breath and my last thought. O Merciful Saviour, place them in your Sacred Heart also that my final actions and thoughts will forever be within your unending mercy. Amen##imported-begin##Eloica Smith##imported-end##
