Richard F. Hebert

APR 16, 1935 - SEP 6, 2010

HEBERT

Richard F. of Miami and Washington DC, passed away at home on Sept. 6th. A career journalist and public relations executive. Richard most recently was Publisher and Editor of Travel Advance, a daily travel-industry newsletter. Most of his career was spent at AAA, however, where he was Managing Director of Public Affairs in Washington, DC and, earlier, PR Director for AAA Connecticut in Meridan, Conn. Richard started his career as a radio news reporter and later worked at Chirurg and Cairns and A. Shaw Associates in advertising. Richard was born in Boston, MA on April 16, 1935 and moved to Miami in 1996. He was an avid tennis player and loved theater and baseball. He is survived by two daughters, Pamela Musinski of Centreville, VA and Kristen Campbell of Falls Church, VA, two grandchildren, Justine Price of Culpepper, VA and Tyler Price of Cartersville, GA, and two great-grandchildren. In lieu of flowers donations may be sent to the American Heart Association. A gathering will be held today Thursday from 6 – 8 pm at

VAN ORSDEL CORAL GABLES

While I corresponded occasionally with Mr. Hebert re: Travel Advance, I somehow felt like I knew him. Mainly because his dedication to the travel industry was an inspiration to all of us. God bless.##imported-begin##Kathy Prickett##imported-end##
