I was very sorry to hear that Ralph as passed. He was a wonderful man and was just great to work with. We worked together in Charlotte for several years. Talk about a sharp dresser. Ralph always looked like he had just walked out of a fine mens shop. He will be missed by his Piedmont Airlines family. Kyle##imported-begin##Kyle Childress##imported-end##

Ralph was my Boss for a few years and was one of the greatest persons I have ever met. Always friendly, and with his big laugh, he would brighten any room he walked into. Through him I met Albie. They made the perfect couple. My deepest condolences and prayers go out to Albie and the family. I am sure Ralph is making all in heaven laugh right now.##imported-begin##Yvette Hart-Metzger##imported-end##

Our condolences to Albie and Ralph's daughters.I knew Ralp when he was in the USN Submarine Corp stationned in Portsmouth, NH and his first daughter was born. He workrd for me in my automobile business part time, and then became my partner in a leasing business for a number of years before he felt the tugging of his Miami heart-strings. When he departed we sold the business.I have been in my own businesses for more years than I care to admit, but of all the crooks and backstabbers I have met in my business life, Ralph was the exception; honest to a fault!! felt badly when I lost him to Miami, and now I feel terrible to have lost him forever. It is so sad and Ralph was a wondereful, lovely, and fun guy!Phil##imported-begin##Phil Baker##imported-end##

We will also miss Ralph's wonderful stories about his time as chairman of the condominium board and his dealings with the "condo commandos". Ralph, you are in our thoughts. Mel and I want to express how sad we were to hear of Ralph's passing. When I think of the boy Ralph in seventh grade, I remember how nice and friendly he was. In the past few years I've gotten to know Ralph all over again through Albie and still think of him as such a nice, friendly person. Mel and I always looked forward to getting together with Albie and Ralph. We will miss him, but are glad we got to spend some time with him. We send our condolences to all his loved ones.##imported-begin##Marcia Sobel Hecht##imported-end##
