I met her back during the 1960's, I lived in the kenwick neighborhood, she was with a girl named Libby crouch, met them one evening during our neighborhood schools fall feastable, I thought she seemed to be a nice energetic girl, but the next time I ran into her, she was working and I was doing telephone work for GTE of Lexington. We spoke, but she didn't seem to remember me, I had just returned from a 2 year service with the U S ARMY, and a tour in VIETNAM. Sorry to her of her passing, especially at a young age, and sorry for your loss. god bless her and yours.

I was thinking what I experienced yesterday at the viewing. I perceived love, joy and happiness as you remembered the wonderful being your wife is. More so, I perceived eternity, for she will surely live in the hearts of the people she touched. My prayers are with you, Gerry, and Chris.##imported-begin##Edgar Cancel##imported-end##
