been 15 years since my mother has passed and I thought I was over it or atleast passed it , but an hour ago I broke down in tears wondering why , im now 30 years old and so much has happened to me , my grandfather passed , my grandmother carucha had a bad accident and now has to be under care givers for my aunts house , she doesn't talk much anymore like she used to , music has been the only thing and way for me to have an outlet , but still so broken and in so much pain from this , I have lost also one of my best friends who had went with me to the hospital the day she passed , we had played in bands together when we were younger , im now 30 years old and still feel as I felt about this , I had a dream about my mom that so vividly real I fully believed it , she came back to life as said "everything is going to be okay we can be together again" she smiled and then I woke up in my dark room , alone , I want to be happy and feel better and I need to talk to someone , I really thought I was okay but im not , I feel so broken and a lone , I can't talk to much a lot of people about this because they don't know what it's like to go through this , my grandfather passed in 2022, im scared when my aunts time is up it'll be o no t me and that's what terrifys me, but I know I have to strong for my aunt and grandma and I will , I wish you were still here , if you were i wouldn't feel so broken all the time

Jeffrey Alexander shared 5 photos to the Tribute Wall album.

It's been 15 years since the passing of my mom , I had thought I put the grief behind me , but yesterday and today I realized that I am still very broken , during these past years I have accomplished a lot in my music career , but I had also made choices that I regret and have also lost some of my best friends who knew my mom from suicide, illness etc. my grandfather had passed away in 2022 , my grandmother carucha had a bad accident hitting her head and she isn't the same grandma I grew up with , I spoke with my aunt last night about the dreams I sometimes have about my mother and how real they feel , but the last dream I had was she had came back to life and we were together again and she told me "everything's going to back to the way things were , you don't have to worry or cry anymore I love you" and she smiled, and then I woke up in my dark room alone , and I sat on my bedside wishing the dream was in the dark room alone, but when I told her this dream I started choking up fully crying almost , but with anyone else I can say this without feeling sad , my grandma now lives with my aunt and she can't take care of her self my aunt has to have care givers for her 24:7 , my grandma doesn't talk anymore like she used too , and I live in Orlando now so im far away from them , but over the course of the years when I was I was selfish , it was always why me why me , my aunt Estela told me that sometimes she would think when my grandma passed that me and her would not talk anymore or see each other , but I told her I wouldn't let her grieve alone , I would stay by her side every step of the way like she and my grandma did for me , I regret the things I did and said to them when I was younger , I just wanted my mom back , but about 30 minutes ago , I started bawling and in pain , im not happy with myself at all , im depressed because I feel all alone up here , I am broken and I just want to break out of this , I realized that I grew up faster than most of my friends and still am , the things they worry about are so minuscule to me and life in general , but I want to heal and be happy for once , I haven't been happy through all this time , the one thing that has never left me is music and it my life and passion , but I need to be a man and seek help , which I will now do , I've done therapy before but I was under the influence, I got addicted to very heavy drugs and it stemmed from this along with the things that have happened in my life but those were my choices and I'm not proud of them , I will continue to live and try my hardest for my mom to help my aunt and grandma any way I can even though I feel like I can't sometimes , im still very broken , and I broke down when I saw these pictures , I am scared when my grandma passed all I'll have left is my aunt and then after that it's just me it seems like , and im scared of being truly alone , I know tragedies will find us , but I still feel so much pain and despair, and I just want to be okay , I will always honor my mom and how she was my best friend in the whole world , a hole in my heart is gone since she left this world , but I hope my music will continue to help people as it has been said from my fan base , but I just want to be happy.

Maria, I will miss you more than words can express. I was very lucky to have you as a nurse manger. My 1st nurse manger. I will always remember walking into your office on the daily basis and laughing so hard I would cry. You where down to earth, honest and true to your heart. I will always remember you, espically when I am listing to the Indigo Girls. We loved listening to them in your office. I will never forget you or your beautiful smile. Rest in Peace Maria Love You Always Laura###imported-begin##Laura Ann Briz###imported-end##

Maria, I will miss you dear friend! I will miss years of friendship and history that we shared. I will miss being able to call you for a cuban consult, dropping by for chocolate and bubble gum, sharing successes and failures and being able to laugh at them all! I will really miss your outrageous sense of humor!! I know you are in a wonderful place now with only sunny days and a checking account with a limitless overdraft protection :) We will keep Jeffrey and your Mom and Sister close in our thoughts and prayers in the days ahead. I also reserve the right to keep in touch with him for many years to come till he becomes to famous to return my calls! Rest in peace my friend - I love you, Jill##imported-begin##Jill White##imported-end##

To the family of Maria, especially Jeffrey: It's often very hard at this moment to understand why do we always lose someone who is very special and dear to us. only God knows the big plans, and like HE says in the book of Jeremiah 29:11; " For I know the plans I have for you", declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you, and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Please take comfort in knowing that you all are loved and remembered, and that God will always be with you even when you least believe it. Maria had an exceptional personality. To me she was genuine in her actions and thoughts. She always and willingly met my needs whenever asked. She will be missed dearly. We all loved her, but God loved her BEST. May you all take comfort in the Peace that only God can give. May God Bless you all.##imported-begin##Beverly Johnson##imported-end##

Carucha, Jefferey y Estela Rosa, A nuestra querida hermana, hija y nieto. Ustedes son nuestros queridos seres. Nos encontramos con pena, dolor en el alma y corazon. Y la pena de no estar juntos. No sabemos como consolarlos la perdida que sufren. No hay dolor como el de perder un hijo. Rezamos por ti Carucah, como Dios bondadoso puede hacer sufrir una madre, asi, como hizo sufrir a la Virgen Maria al perder Jesus. Que esperanza podemos tener y con que fe y valor podemos seguir nuestros rumbos. Rezamos por Jefferey que vio a su madre sufrir y morir delante de el. Rezamos por Estela Rosa, por todo que hizo por su hermana. Sabemos con seguridad, que Mabu esta en la gloria, y que ella sera la luz para su hijo y les dara fortaleza a ti Carucha y Estela Rosa para rendirse a lo que Dios quizo para ella. Mabu esta viendolos y protegiendolos ahora mismo y los esperara y recibira a todos con sus brazos cuando Dios de su palabra. Con nuestras almas en manos Carmen y Tachi y Paul, Megan y Kirsten##imported-begin##Carmen y Tachi##imported-end##

Maria, I was once told that life is like a rose garden, God seems to pick and keep the best ones...today that feels very true. You are walking and rejoicing with the Angels now. You may be gone from the world but you will always be in our hearts. Being your friend was definitely a pleasure and privilege. Thanks for all the funny and wonderful times. You will remain alive in my heart forever. It's nice to know we have such an amazing Guardian Angel looking down on us. I miss you ...Emmy##imported-begin##Emelyn Herrera##imported-end##

Maria, I miss you!!! I will miss your voice, your jokes and most of all our time together. I never thought I would be writing something like this. You will always be part of my life. My heart will always carry our special times. It will carry the laughs we shared on a daily basis teasing eachother or laughing about someone else, it will carry all the words you hated me to say like "for the most part". It will carry your vocabulary. The words you would invent so no one but an elite few would know what they meant. It will carry all the days I visited you and was your personal RN in the hospital and at home. It will carry all our lunch dates to Kyojin. It will carry the knowledge you shared with me to make me a better nurse and a better person. No one will ever replace you in my heart or mind. I will keep my memories of you forever. I will always keep my promise to you of staying close to Jeffrey. My thoughts and prayers are with you Estella, Carucha, & Jeff. Maria, I love you and I WILL see you again. Until then my friend...##imported-begin##Larissa Vega##imported-end##
