Sharron Helen Lewis

OCT 25, 1959 - MAR 17, 2011

FOUNDER: SHARRON LEWIS DESIGN CENTRAL, MIAMI FLORIDA

It is with deep sadness that Sharron's husband, Jihad Audy, and their respective families, inform you their beloved Sharron passed away on March 17th, 2011, after a long, determined, and courageous fight against cancer.

Sharron will be deeply missed by her loving husband, Jihad Audy; her parents, Mel Lewis and Heather Leggat; her sister, Christine Lewis, with her children, Eromon and Ruby; and her uncle, Ash Lewis. All the Audy family will also miss her deeply, as will her many wonderful friends, staff, and clients.

Sharron was born in New Zealand, and on completion of her studies, settled in New York City. In 1999 she established her design company in Miami.

Sharron's passion and talent for design are legendary. Accomplished, innovative, inspired, artistic and elegant -- words simply cannot describe the brilliance that was the essence of Sharron. Her ability to envision beauty by simply walking into a space spoke volumes of her genius. With only the dimensions of a room, and a quick conversation about the client's purpose for the space, she began her magic. Her sense of style always left those who saw her work in absolute awe of the finished results. Truly a modern-day alchemist, she created gold from the most basic materials. An unqualified perfectionist, Sharron's attention to every minute detail clearly set her, and her company apart.

Sharron's company, now led by her husband and business partner, Jihad Audy, along with the multi-talented design team and employees will forge ahead to even greater heights. Inspired by Sharron's example, vision, and knowledge, they will continue to create magical results for clients.
