Dear Aunt Tatty, I have the fondest childhood memories of the many summer days I spent at your home in Savlamar. My recollection of the fireflies I caught and kept at my bedside when I stayed with you, the tamarind balls that I ate so many of that I was "hailing the throne". And, yes, you helped me through that too! I remember when you came to my home in Miami, I remember placing cold cotton balls on your eyes as we discussed Norman's illness with esophageal cancer. But,....the best, the absolute best was when you would sing and play "Those Were The Days My Friend" on your piano. How vivid that memory that brings a smile to my heart EVERYTIME. My dearest Aunt Tatty,....."THOSE WERE THE DAYS MY FRIEND" BUT NOW THERE ARE NO MORE DAYS ONLY SWEET ETERNITY!!!!!!!!!!!!!!I LOVE YOU, Anthony##imported-begin##Anthony Hamaty##imported-end##

Grandma.... you left us the greatest legacy that anyone can leave someone...TO LOVE.... Your unconditional, unwavering love for me fills me with the greatest gratitude to God for the great gift he gave us when he placed you in our midst. You held nothing back, but poured out all you had. We were your concert audience, and accompanied you on the piano... You had a deep intuition...and new us not in the roles, that families sometimes play...grandson, daughter, sister, friend....but you KNEW each person in their own specialness and in their own uniqueness.... I will never forget singing SUNRISE SUNSET with you and when we cried watching CHARLOTTE'S WEB together and THE COLOR PURPLE... you are and will forever be..one of a kind to me... Now you play only for the King of Glory... Joy and eternal peace is yours ...and although my heart cuts sometimes... and I weep... I am comforted because I know you have inheited EERNAL LIFE....
