Miriam will be missed a whole lot. Even though she was in Florida I always thought of her and missed her alot. She was a wonderful person and cousin. Always looking out for someone. She loved kids and was a WONDERFUL MOTHER! My only regret is that I wasn't able to visit her in Florida. I will miss her alot. Blood is defintely thicker then water. Even though Miriam, Tanya and George lived there I feel there was an unbroken family bond. Looking at these pictures brings back memories of the last time I saw Miriam before she left to Florida. Miriam you will always be in my heart. I will always love you my cousin. No matter what.##imported-begin##Wilma Vega##imported-end##

My cousin Miriam was a wonderful person. When I think about her, I remember her laughter, she was contagious. When she laughted, it was joyous. As I am writing this, I have a smile on my face, remembering all the good times we shared. Our family was a close knit unit. We loved each other, and enjoyed being around one another. Then tradegy struck, and people weren't as close. But God's mighty hand has been at work in our family, praise God hallelujah. And through his grace, and mercy, George has never lost touch with me. And for that I thank my lord and savior. My cousin will be missed. She was a wonderful, loving mother. A mother who worked very hard to provide for her two kids. She always wanted the best for them. I will always remember Miriam's cooking skills - my God she and her mother, my aunt were great "chefs", I mean you would want to lick your fingers after having one of their meals.Rest in peace Miriam. You are now in Gods glory.Love you.##imported-begin##Ruby Morales##imported-end##

My prayers go out for your family. Loosing a loved one in death is the hardest thing for anyone to face and endure. However, God is a loving God; and he comforts us during our tribulations. May you seek Him during this testing time. It is my hope that you receive some comfort from his wonderful promises to us in the Bible. John 5: 28, 29 speaks about the day when Jesus according to his Father's will resurrect many of our deceased loved ones. Also the most wonderful promise of all is found in Revelation 21:4 where we are told that he will do away with this enemy of ours "Death". May you find comfort from God, and from each other keeping in mind these wonderful promises to each and everyone of us. Hold on to the wonderful memories you were able to share, until the day that you may meet again under the wonderful paradise conditions God has promised to man. With Deepest Sympathy, Alicia C##imported-begin##Alicia C##imported-end##

To my beloved friend, George. I'm sorry about mom. I never physically met her. Nonetheless, through having you in my life, and the special friend that you are and the memories that we've shared, I knew "Mom". She raised a kind, loving, special boy who grew up to be a wonderful man. She made the world a special place by giving us "you", George. I feel your loss, yet I know that she did was she was supposed to do as a mom. She made all the right sacrifices and choices and thanks to her we have "you". Georgie, mommy was tired and she is resting now. She is with God now. She is with her loving father. We must always remember the good times and the laughter and her stories to keep her memory close to us. I pray to God to give you comfort and peace through this difficult journey. I know you are going to be okay because you were there for your mom like a son should be. She carried you and held you in every moment of your life and now you will carry her torch forever! She has not left us. She lives through you George. I love you my friend. Friends Forever, Soly.##imported-begin##Soly (Marisol) ##imported-end##
