Kevin, I will never forget the day I met you. It was in high school and you pointed me out to your friend telling her "look at her, she doesn't smile!" Ever since that day, you always made sure to make me laugh and shortly after that you became my best friend. I can never thank you enough for being the friend I needed. Kevin, I know your smile is bigger than ever just being in the presence of God. I'll see you when I get there. Until then, rest in paradise.##imported-begin##Lisette##imported-end##

Dear Great Nephew Kevin, Due to the distances between us we were unable to share our thoughts and philosophies, particularly, from a family perspective. The few times we did though were fulfilling, and rewarding. Your time here on earth, sadly, has been much too brief. God must have a special mission for you. Certain you shall do your best to succeed, as always. May God bless your soul, you could not be in finer company in the hands of the Lord and your family predecessors.##imported-begin##Jerry & Christine LaForgia##imported-end##

You were the life of the party and the glue that held so much together. Your humor and demeanor were enough to put a smile on any stranger's face, because nobody ever knew what your next move was. You were the master of unpredictability! And like all the "greats" that have ever graced this planet, you too left us too soon. We miss you terribly, but understand that you are in the arms of angels... I love you, Kevin. See ya when I see ya.##imported-begin##Stephanie and Tony Curry##imported-end##

Although you were taken from us too soon, you have always made us proud of you, you have always made us laugh, always there when anyone needed help. What you would have accomplished in your life leaves a giant void in what the future of this earth could have been. You have touched the hearts of so many people and will never be forgotten. We are so lucky to have been a part of your life. Tell everyone we said hi. See you when we get there. We love you and miss you.
