John F. Ahlfeld

Stephen Steilberg posted:

I remember Mr. Ahlfeld back in 1969-70 when I was dating his daughter, Marianne. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ahlfeld were very gracious people and welcomed me into their household. My favorite memories of Mr. Ahlfeld were when I would visit his family in the evening, he was almost always studying "flight maps" for his job, training pilots at Eastern Air Lines. I also remember that he loved listening to the musician, Eddy Arnold, also known as the "Tennessee Plowboy". The Ahlfelds were a very accomplished family and it was an honor to have known them. May John and Kathryn rest forever in the arms of Jesus.
