My deepest condolences to The family. Brian was one of the most loyal and solid persons that I ever encountered. Always with a smile and a kind word. He had real scientific insight and concern for the sea, and he loved Diving! He was the life of the dive team on his first job. Here's to Brian flying over the oceans where he is finding all the reefs. Anitra Thorhaug

Yes he loved diving. He was a good Father and my husband for 28 years. He had a fantastic sense of humor and we had many great years together. He is definitely in Heaven at peace ❤️
