My heart is sadden by your loss but my heart rejoices thinking of you anytime I ever saw you and spoke with you. You never made me feel as a stranger , and your unfailing love for your husband, joy of children and togetherness of family reminded me of all I had had all of my life. Thank you for your kindness your smile and your affection. You will be missed but you have a legacy of love

I'll always remember our Christmases at Oma's house in Miami Shores. It was so warm and welcoming, filled to the brim with people but always with room for more. I loved all the stockings on the mantle and how we would sit on the floor watching our toddlers play with their new toys. When Oma finally announced dinner was ready, Opa would give his heartfelt speech about how grateful he was for his family and everyone would try to hold back their tears.
