AMALIA CARMEN GRACIOTTI

JUL 16, 1928 - FEB 13, 2018

Amalia Carmen Graciotti
July 16, 1928-Feb. 13, 2018. Carmen was born in San Luis, Argentina, where she was a teacher, a profession she embraced through her later years. She met her husband Cesar Graciotti and the two moved to the USA for a better life. A life that blessed them with two children, Monique and Sergio. Mom was vibrant and energetic. She danced and taught tango and ballroom dancing for over 25 years, a hobby that kept her healthy to nearly the age of 90. She danced every Sunday and Wednesday night at the Italian American Club in Hollywood, FL. She would always use to say "I'm the first one on the dance floor at 6PM and the last one to leave at 2AM." She also had a passion for art, creating 3D pieces, writing poems and making jewelry. I am so grateful that I was able to spend 89 and half years with her. An independent soul, we spent so much time together going and doing and her mind intact. She is survived by her daughter Monique and fiancé Michael Yorio and her son Sergio and his girlfriend Linda Free.

God bless you mom, we love you and you will be missed.
