William Salinas posted:

I worked with Marty many years at U.S. Probation. He was a great guy and helpful to everyone he met. Even after being diagnosed with Parkinson's he never lost his sense of humor. Once when he was in the beginning stages of the disease we were having coffee at the Hollywood office and he dropped his hot coffee cup on the floor splashing hot coffee on me. Marty spoke right up and said the next coffee would be on him. We laughed and laughed. He never lost his sense of humor or caring for other people. He will be greatly missed. William Salinas

I was a close friend and worked with Marty for years. I regret that I was not notified of his passing and would have liked to attend his funeral

I also worked with him for many years in probation. He was my friend, SOU mentor and my supervisor. I admired him tremendously. His knowledge, smart wit and tenacious supervision style was a contributor to my success. I will forever hold him in my thoughts and my heart. RIP my friend.
