Russell Abraham Sabbag

JUN 15, 1927 - AUG 31, 2019

Russell Sabbag was born on June 15, 1927 in Boston, MA and passed away on August 31, 2019 in Miami, FL. He is survived by his wife, Evelyn, of over 66 years, sister, Marion Haddad, daughter, Dianne (Nick †) Saab, son Russell (Rhonni); grandchildren Amanda, Nicholas, Russell, Gregory, Alexandra, Michael and Elizabeth; as well as great-grandson Adrian.

Russell served his country honorably in the U.S. Army and had a long career in the food industry. He was a founding member of St. Jude Melkite Catholic Church, serving in various roles in the Parish Council for many years. He also served in the Patriarchal Order of the Holy Cross of Jerusalem.

Russell loved all sports, especially baseball and football. Evelyn would often say “if it had a ball he would watch it”.

Russell had the belief that a man should be measured by the inner qualities of the person and was a “man’s man”. Russell was a devoted family man, always dedicated to his family and relatives. He never said no to anyone asking for his assistance and was beloved by anyone who came to know him. He had an infectious, fun-loving spirit that will be remembered and missed.

We love you and will miss you!

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, September 4, 2019 from 6:00-8:00pm at St. Jude Melkite Catholic Church located at 126 S.E. 15 Road with a Prayer Service at 7:00 pm. So sorry to hear about the passing uncle Russ. I have nothing but the Fondest Memories of him on how good of a man he was. Most importantly how great of a brother he was to my mom. All my love to Aunt Evie, cousin Diane, Russ and all of his beautiful grandchildren. May he rest in peace.

I love you and I will surely miss your smile. You brightened the room with your wit and laughter. I am holding on to the memory of us playing catch with that mini football 🏈 I was blessed to have you in my life for 19 years and I remember when you said I could call you Dad. I love you Dad, Rhonni
