Bim and I are saddened by Rita's passing. What a lovely lady. We lived across the street from Rita and Neville for many years and during those years we shared a lot together. Bim would stand behind Rita playing mahjong and give her advice which she never needed. Our Calukie nights were so much fun especially trying to avoid finishing DFL. Rita was always in good spirits. She loved a good joke and made our time together lighthearted. We moved away and many years have passed. Now, we are the old people! As we reflect, we remember Rita and Neville with love! Rita rest in peace.
