BETTY ALICE MCDAVIT

MAY 17, 1936 - SEP 1, 2021

Betty Hendren McDavid, beloved, wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, died September 1, 2021 at her home, surrounded by her loving family. She leaves her spirit and love. She was active in the First United Methodist Church and served as secretary of Altar Guild. She was a retired legal secretary and property manager. She devoted much of her time and energy as a volunteer helping others. She enjoyed playing tennis and golf with her friends from the Coral Gables country club. Betty was a Delta Airlines Stewardess in 1959, and flew the inaugural DC-8 jet flight from Miami to Chicago and Detroit. Betty grew up in northern Kentucky and attended Eastern Kentucky State University. She lived in Coral Gables since 1959. She is survived by her husband, Ken, sister, Mary Darby, of Shreveport, LA; daughter, Margie Hendren Gupton (Walter); son, William Mack Hendren, III (Catherine), daughter, Kelly M. Jones; Four grandchildren and one great-grandchild, as well as many nieces and nephews. At her request, no formal funeral service will be held. Her favorite saying was "Life is a sermon, so be careful how you live it"
