Alberto Artidiello

SEP 15, 1935 - FEB 4, 2022

Beloved Husband, father and grandfather passed away peacefully on February 4 Alberto was a giving soul , always helping out he's family and friends when they Needed help. You will be missed in this world. GOD took him and gave he's Wings, so he can continue to watch us from heaven. Go in peace my father,
We will be all right.

Remembering a beautiful person, strong, caring and kind man. My memories of Alberto are always warm, happy, and caring. Particularly I remember one time when I was very sick with the flu and Alberto visited the house and took care of me, putting alcohol on my feet and forehead so my fever would go down. He was a positive man, supportive, reserved, and had a smile no one could forget. While it is difficult to think or know he is not physically here, he was not a man to sit still and not be active. He is now free, he is not in a room, in a home, or bound to a bed or wheelchair and I am sure he is watching over his family, kids, and grandkids proud of the family he created and nurtured. You will be missed Alberto. Our warm thoughts, hugs and condolences to the Artidiello family. Love always Mabel

El mejor Abuelo del mundo! Y cuando conociste a tus bisnietos era otro oportunidad de verte feliz y retorciendo con ellos. Te quiero muchísimo y siempre vas a tener un lugar especial en mi corazón ♥. Descansa en paz mi abuelo querido.
