Delfina Rodriguez

SEP 27, 1939 - NOV 22, 2022

Delfina Rodriguez, 83 of Miami, Florida, passed away on November 22, 2022 after a long and courageous battle against cancer. Delfy, as she liked to be called, was born in Camagüey, Cuba on September 27, 1939 and spent her childhood and early adulthood in Havana, where she fell in love and married her husband of sixty-four years, Humberto Rodriguez, who survives her today. Like many in her generation, she fled Cuba after the Revolution with Humberto, and their two young daughters, Maria Cristina Mata and Adriana Wojnar, who also survive her today. For the rest of her life, Delfina proudly called the United States her home. As a young mother, she bravely started a new life with her family, first in Brooklyn then finally settling in Miami. There she established a permanent home for her family for generations to come. For the rest of her life, she selflessly dedicated herself to her grandchildren, and loved getting the entire family together for large family vacations. They called her “B” and she instilled in them a sense of pride in their heritage, the importance of family and encouraging their love of the arts. She would always have a lesson or piece of advice ready, and an article clipped from the Miami Herald to support her thesis!

Because of the love and sacrifice that defined her life, she is now survived by grandchildren Danny Fernandez, Cristina Tolle, Ashley Wojnar, Brittany Thomason, Michael Wojnar, Jessica McLane, Fernando Mata, and Nicholas Mata and great-grandchildren Evan Thomason, William McLane, Charles McLane, Isabelle McLane, Fernando Mata Jr, Leo Mata, Emilio Mata, and Elias Mata. She is also survived by her sons-in-law Fernando Mata and Thomas Wojnar; nieces and nephews Maria Fernandez, Jose Fernandez and Christopher Sancerni; and the two people who have loved her the longest, her sister Caridad Bosch and her mother Maria Cristina Bosch.

She will be incredibly missed, and her legacy will always be the mark that her love has left on all our hearts. Querida Delfy, nuestra hermana, madre y abuela. Seguiremos siempre juntos con el

Hola B, Thank you ever so much for being there for both Crissy and I during our childhood years all the way to our (I can't believe I am saying this) mid thirties. I'll always remember the Floranada Elementary chorus trips to Disney World/Universal Studios when both you and Tito chaperoned the two of us. Wonderful memories. Your strength, courage, thoughtfulness, wisdom, and endless positivity will be an inspiration to me for the rest of my life. You and your family will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers. You are truly missed. Hasta que nos encontremos de nuevo. Mucho amor, Stephanie
