CATHERINE "KAY" HEWSON FAHRINGER

Catherine "Kay" Hewson Fahringer a well-known and respected financial executive and community leader, died March 10, 2023. She was 100 years old.

Born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Kay moved to Miami in 1958 with her son, Frank Beckett.

She joined Dade Federal Savings and Loan in 1958, which later became CentTrust Savings Bank, as a Public Relations Clerk, and rose through the ranks to become Executive Vice President in charge of Savings, Human Resources and Marketing. She also served as a member of its Board of Directors, positions she held for many years until her retirement in 1984, due to the illness and subsequent death of her husband, Edward.

Kay was recognized as a "Trailblazer" for the advancement of women in business and in the community. She served as the first woman President/Chairperson of many professional, civic, and charitable organizations in Miami-Dade County and in the State of Florida. She was Chairperson of The Public Health Trust of Miami-Dade County, The South Florida Blood Service, President and Trustee Emeritus of Florida International University Foundation and the FIU Golden Panthers, its athletic organization. She was President of The Country Club of Coral Gables, its president in 60 years, and was also its Commodore of The Fleet and President of its Woman's Golf Association. She was named a Lifetime Founding Director of WPBT Chanel 2, a lifetime member of The Girl Scouts, the YWCA and Lifetime Member of The Institute of Financial Education in Chicago, where she served as a National Director representing the State of Florida...

Through study and teaching, she was awarded its Graduate Diploma. She received an Honorary BA from the "University of Hard Knocks" at Alderson Broaddus College in West Virginia. She has served as Chairperson of the Board of Adjustments of the City of Coral Gables and Vice Chairperson of the City's Senior Citizens Advisory Board.

Kay was also a public Arbitrator for NASD Regulations Association. She has been acknowledged by many organizations locally and throughout the State of Florida for her organizational skills and for her dedicated service. Many times, she was told "It can't be done", but with her leadership and the help of others, "they did it".

Among her many acknowledgments and awards, she was named the Outstanding Citizen of Miami-Dade County in 1984 for her work in health care and education and in 2007, she received the Mayor's Pioneer Award of the Miami-Dade County's "In the Company of Women" program.

Her favorite pastimes - golf, bridge, and orchids. She has served as President of The Coral Gables

Dear Don
With deep sadness we learned of your Jeannett's passing. Way too young! Her obituary points out what a vibrant, kind, giving life she led. Wally & I are sending our thoughts and prayers to you & your Family for this which must be an incredibly tough time. You were always there for our Aunt Kay & you even spoke at Kay's memorial as Jeannett was in the hospital. Your thoughts were a great comfort to all of us. For that we send our heartfelt thanks & hope for peace for you.
