The news of Mike's passing came to my attention on Saturday morning, and it has saddened my wife and me alike. We have fond memories of Mike, but at least we have the satisfaction of having him present the good news of salvation. I hope that the word of God, which never returns empty and which discerns all things, has nested in your heart. I hope that God, according to His will, has placed your saving faith in HIM, even though it was at the last moment of your life (Ephesians 2:8).

He was truly someone you can lean on, lovely soul that was easy to speak to and sometimes laugh while sharing stories with. Too young to already be gone.

My heart and my condolences to this wonderful man's family. My grandmother would try and make passes at him every chance when she saw him. He was so nice to my daughters, my mom, and I. He was cool with my boyfriend as well and he was so very helpful without complaint. It saddens my heart to hear of his passing but to know he's no longer suffering brings peace. I pray the family and all of his loved ones find peace in that knowing as well. To a good man. Gone but never forgotten ☐☐

So very sad and sorry to hear about my handsome cousin. May Michael rest n peace and you all find comfort on the life he lived and the memories you have. I will always remember our summer fun in Florida when we were teenagers - especially his pranks. Maybe not a glamorous memory but his laugh was infectious after. Very sad that as the years have gone we did not stay connected. Hugs to you all! Love you!
