Yolanda C. Miranda

FEB 3, 1932 - NOV 14, 2025

Yolanda C Miranda, who was born on February 3, 1932, in Baracoa, Cuba, passed away peacefully on Friday, November 14th, 2025, surrounded by her loved ones. She was a cherished wife, mother, sister, grandmother, and great-grandmother, known for her unwavering love, boundless warmth, and infectious smile that brightened every room she entered.

Yolanda's life was a testament to her deep faith in God - which she lived out in every moment. A woman of prayer, kindness, and generosity, she devoted her days to caring for her family and nurturing those around her. She had an incredible gift for cooking. As a result, no one ever left her home hungry, as a true reflection of her nurturing soul. Her family was the center of her world, and she always made sure they knew they were loved. Whether through her comforting words, gentle guidance, or by simply sharing a meal, Yolanda made sure everyone felt cared for. She took immense joy in seeing her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren grow. She always made the effort to care for them all, even when she was tripping over the children's toys in the living room, or forcing a meal against their will. Yolanda leaves behind a legacy of faith, love, and devotion to family.

Mom, though your earthly journey has ended, "You are not gone, but simply beyond our sight - still walking with us in every sunrise, every whispered prayer, and every tender moment you left behind."
