We are so saddened to hear of the passing of Janey Church, mother of our dear friend and neighbor, Janene Church. We remember meeting Janey over 29 years ago when we moved next to Janene in Miami Shores. What a delightful woman with a sweet smile and reminded us so much of Janene, always happy and engaging. Sending condolences to her family. We were not able to attend her services but enjoyed her family video and will watch her service online. Love, Julie and Dan Brady

Most of my memories of my Mother go way back when she was a young mother of 5 children. She was always extremely smart woman who had a lot on her plate at an early age. She always took on the lions share of life with a fierce determination and courage. Always up to the task and always trying to do the right thing. She instilled some of those qualities in all her children and fought the good fight! Rest well, soon we will be together again!
