Rachael Angela Grant

OCT 15, 1952 - DEC 27, 2025

Born on October 15, 1952, in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica, Rachael Grant lived a life defined by style and a sharp sense of humor. She was educated at Immaculate Conception and Servite Convent schools in Jamaica and later pursued university studies in Madrid, Spain, experiences that shaped her love of art, culture, and lively conversation.

She had a keen eye and strong opinions. Painting was one of her creative outlets, and she took great pleasure in shaping her home into a space that was distinctly her own, expressive and full of color and life.

Music was a constant companion, and she loved to dance, especially to reggae, which never failed to bring her to her feet. She was witty, unapologetically sassy, and known for a laugh that could fill a room. She didn't fade into the background. She was the party.

After settling in Miami, Florida, she worked with the Beacon Council and VITAS Healthcare, bringing energy, intelligence, and a no-nonsense approach to her professional life. She was respected for her competence and remembered for her personality.

She is survived by her son, Kristian; her daughter-in-law, Cynthia; her sister, Jacqueline; her niece, Dominique; and her nephew, Jonny, who will remember her for her spirit, her humor, and her unmistakable presence.

Rachael passed away in Miami, Florida December 27th 2025. She lived on her own terms and left a lasting impression on everyone who knew her.

I remember Aunt Rachael as the most stylish, cool, and radical person in the world. As a little girl in her home, I was inspired by her art, the constant presence of music, by the stories she had to tell and the way she lived her life. She was not the kind of woman I thought a woman had to be. I grew up to be a radical artist, a wild, creative, and often outspoken woman myself largely because of her influence. I make music, I make art, I decorate my home, I fan myself lazily in the summer heat while talking to friends on the phone, I walk like I deserve to take up space, I make my voice heard, I stand up for my right to feel, I stand up for my right to be passionate--all because I am in a line of women handed to me, unbroken, by my mother and my Aunt Rachael. She has moved on to her next life in the flesh, but her influence on the world and the generations that come will always carry an extra sassy spark in her honor. Missing Aunt Rachael and knowing her memory is a collective grief we all honor in sharing her stories here. Love and peace to us all as we meet in grief, Dominique, Grateful Niece

Rachael, you were a classic woman. Listening to your stories and jokes were fun times. Once I saw that twinkle in your eye, I knew something juicy was coming. I love that you had your Auntie Barbara's fabulous Grant legs. I will miss you and love you always, until we meet again. ❤️ 🍷 🧑🏻‍🦱 JM

Cracks me up thinking of Rachael and me giggling about "Daddy's Juice" when we gave Dominique and Jonny apple juice while we broke out the beers. Or the wine. Or the rum. Delightful, mischievous sister in law!! She will be missed. Dennis Kent: former brother in law
