“ "ALONE"
by: Cecilia Zamora Stevenson

The sign was not visible in your sparkling little eyes...
Your childlike smile, always reaching for the stars.
Alone, hiding the pain in your heart.
I am sure that in your last breath
Jesus arms embrace you and took you home to rest.

Life is your gift O, Lord, help me to be an instrument of your love. ~Amen

In memory of ANA MARIE BARCELO a dear friend.

“ Anna Marie Barcelo by Victor Martinez

My good and lifelong friend Peter asked me to write a few words about his mom, Anne Marie Barcelo.

To do this, I must take you back to 1973. You see, Pete and I go way back, we attended Ranch together, played music together, were lifeguards together, did triathlons together and even went hunting together. We even attended lectures together at the Museum of Science where we were both asked to leave if we didn't stop laughing.

Back then, I remember well going to Pete's house and having long conversations with his dad and always there, was his mom. I remember her beautiful smile, always cordial and extremely proud of her son Pete. In all, my must've been a thousand visits to Pete's, she was always there greeting me with a kiss and smile. Always joyous, never down, she always greeted me with a big smile, full of life and vigor.

Around 1978, my career took me away from Miami and it wasn't until 40 years later that I returned and re-established contact with my good friend Peter. Anyone who knows me knows that I love to eat so, after 40 years apart we decided to meet at Versailles. I was there early when Pete drove up with his mom, Anne Marie. I can honestly say that after 40 years, Anne Marie never forgot me and greeted me with a big hug, and beautiful smile.

For those of us blessed to have been touched by Anne Marie, she will surely be missed. I say this because people of this caliber, you just don't see around anymore. I look forward to the day she greets me once again with her beautiful smile.

“ Ani Mari.....I always remember your visits to the dentist office where I used to work. Your husband would carefully escort you. I was always glad to see you both.

Your husband and son treated you as royalty. They loved and cared for you as one does for a beautiful rose making sure it is treated gently so as not to lose any of its petals.

Now Jesus has called you home to live in the place He has prepared for you.
I know your husband was there with Jesus to greet you with opened arms. Now both of you can walk on the streets of gold smiling with joy and so in love as you both did here on earth.

Ani Mari....I know it was difficult for you to leave your son. But take heart. This is only temporary. Soon the three of you will be reunited and will walk hand in hand on those streets of gold always with your son in the middle as the product of your love..

Lovingly....Linda

“ ...this hymn tells it all and since it's a song, I think it's appropriate for Anna Maria was a wonderful singer and I'm sure she is with our heavenly Father now celebrating big time... God Bless the Barcelo family during this difficult time

If You Only Knew

Have you prayed for a loved one struggling hard with pain?
You asked the Lord for healing, but that healing never came.
And in spite of all your efforts, the good Lord called them Home.
It's hard to let go when you're trying to hold on.

Now you're down in the valley looking up to the sky
And you're praying "Lord, you know what's best, but I don't understand why."
If you could hear your loved one speaking now to you,
They'd say, "You wouldn't be grieving if you only knew."

If you only knew I'm just going Home.
Your prayers have been answered, my sickness is gone.
Things look much better from Heaven's view.
The Son always shines, we're having a time,
If you only knew.

To be absent from the body is present with the Lord
I'm in the arms of Jesus now, and I'm not suffering anymore.
Hand in hand we'll stroll together down Heaven's avenue.

We're having a big celebration if you only knew.

Things look much better from Heaven's view.
The Son always shines, we're having a time,
If you only knew.
