“ My dear Aunt Lyn was a gem in too many ways to mention. She was just an awesome person who constantly wore a smile and constantly offered encouraging words which always ended with God's blessings. Aunt Lyn was like a mother to me when my mother was gone to be with the Lord. Moreover, she adopted my own children and treated them like her own grandchildren. It's no wonder they called her grand aunt Lyn. Words alone cannot express the beauty of this woman of God - she was beautiful in an out - and treated my uncle, her husband of over 60 years, like a king. Aunt Lyn, thank you for the love, words of encouragement, prayers, smiles and simply for being you - an amazing woman of God. You will be missed more than I can ever say! RIP my dear Aunt Lyn.

“ She raised me from 1.5 to 16.5 years old and those were the best years of my life. There's so much she sacrificed for me. I excelled under her care, because she did everything she could to help me and loved me like her own child. Private school for 10 years , private violin lessons for even longer , hosting concerts and entering me into festivals, international traveling, national traveling, pathfinder, choir groups, drama teams, and on top of all continues home schooling, made dresses from scratch, keep my hair skin and my appearance 100% perfect, got everything I asked for and more.. plus kept up with my adhd lol

It was my grandmother and I for 16 years of my life. I left and didn't learn until after becoming a parent myself how hard the real world can be especially when raising kids. My grandmother sacrificed for me and for this reason I am alive today with some integrity and morals left that can never be forgotten.

My grandma dedicated her time, money, and her life to caring for others and gave her heart to the lord. She didn't want to live in pain and suffering anymore and I have to let her go. May she Rest In Peace

“ Loved Aunt Lynn immensely. She was a woman of integrity. Stood up for what she believed in until death. A woman of great courage even through adversity. A virtuous woman. Always encouraging Everyone to keep holding on. She was an example to all of us. She held on until death. That was Aunt Lynn. A true soldier. She has laid down her sword and is now resting. Rest In Peace beautiful lady. Your memory will live on.

“ "Sister Nick" was a gentle soul. She always took time to ask about my family. I know she is awaiting the return of our Lord Jesus when she and "Brother Nick" will be reunited. She will be missed.

“ I am saddened that Aunt Lyn is no longer on this earth with us but I am not going to question God. I believe with all my heart that she was ready. I am missing her but I am encouraged to be ready to meet her when Jesus comes. Clover and immediate family cheer up, let's be prepared to be in the Kingdom.
