“ Daddy - Oh how I miss you! Like Nomi said, just to have five more minutes with you ... I have cried so much and I am still full of tears. You were one in a million, and the Godliest man I will ever know. You just wanted to come home. Well you are Home, just not this home. RIP Daddy and I will see you soon. I love you. Onewee

“ Dad, you've been my Superman my whole life! I am lost without you, part of me is gone, part of my purpose in life. I miss your sweet smile, your bear hugs, and just talking to you. We have had so many good times together and shared many tears too. Life is full of ups and downs and you helped through them all. I miss you like crazy. Thank you for teaching all I know...heck I can put up drywall, drive a car, know just about the name of every tool there is. Thank you most of all for teaching morals and values, how to be the best spouse possible, how to parent my children with love and discipline, and to love with all my heart. I will love you and miss you for the rest of my life. Wish I knew why you left us so unexpectedly, I know how much you wanted to go home to be with Mom again. Peace dad, mom will be ok, we will take care of her. I know you heard me in those last moments when I told you that and how much I love you. I will see you again. My only peace is that you are with Sharon and your brothers. I love you dad so much.

“ My Grandpa was a kind, sweet, humble man. He loved his daughters, and his grandchildren very much. He always had a smile on his face when we came to visit, and would share stories about us growing up. My Grandpa would always make me laugh, whether tickling my ribs, or making Donald Duck impersonations. When I was child, he used to come over to my house and take me fishing in the back pond. I always loved spending time with him. We are all going to miss you so much Grandpa! I will always carry you in my heart, and I know you're looking down on us with warmth and love. Rest easy up there, and give my mom a hug for me! God gained an angel. Love you forever.

“Daddy, What I wouldn't give for 5 more minutes....I am who I am because of you. There is nothing I do that in some way you are with me. You taught me everything, except how to let you go. You truly were and will always be my hero. I hope to smile again each time I stir my coffee and think of you purposely clanking your spoon to aggravate mom. I know where I get being a "morning person" for sure. Your're one in a million daddy. How lucky for us, you were our dad. I love you daddy, Nomi
