

Reyhaneh Vafakish Moghaddam

January 12, 1966 - December 29, 2021

Reyhaneh, a loving Wife, Mother, Sister, Daughter in Law, sister in Law, Friend, and faithful servant of Christ, has departed to be with her Lord and her God. Her life has been a testimony of Love, and in that manner she has demonstrated vividly the love of Christ, a love which enchants us with a promise of redemption and with eternity. Reyhaneh was a joyful being who came to believe and express in her living a life of more than the mere passage of time, but rather an expression of the joy of an everlasting life that God promised her. Reyhaneh believed, and so she lived. She was a devoted, loving, and gracious wife and mother, who would always choose the good for her family, even at the expense of her discomfort. She enjoyed family and friendly gatherings, always welcoming everyone, rejoicing with their presence and friendship.

Reyhaneh is being profoundly missed by her husband and children, and by all who knew her because of her love and our love for her, but because of our faith we know that she finally encountered her God who promised her eternal life by saying, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" (St. John 11:25-26) And so she believed, and so she found life Everlasting...

Reyhaneh, amorosa esposa, madre, hermana, nuera, cuñada, amiga, y fiel sierva de Cristo, ha partido para estar con su Señor y su Dios. Su vida ha sido un testimonio de Amor, y en esa manera ella ha demostrado vivamente el amor de Cristo, un amor que nos encanta con una promesa de redención y con eternidad. Reyhaneh fue un ser alegre quien llegó a creer y expresar en su vivir una vida más que un simple pasaje del tiempo, pero al contrario una expresión del regocijo de una vida eterna que Dios le prometió. Reyhaneh creyó, y así ella vivió. Ella fue una devota, amorosa, y agraciada esposa y madre, quien siempre escogía el bien de su familia, aun cuando era en sacrificio de su propia comodidad. Ella disfrutaba reuniones familiares, siempre acogiendo a todos, regocijándose con sus presencias y amistad.

Reyhaneh ya esta siendo profundamente extrañada por su esposo e hijos, y por todos quienes la conocieron por su amor y por nuestro amor por ella, pero a causa de su fe sabemos que ella finalmente se ha reunido con su Dios quien le prometio vida eterna al decirle, “Yo soy la resurrección y la vida. Aquel que crea en mi, aunque el muera, el vivirá, y todo aquel que crea en mi nunca morira. Crees tú esto?” (San Juan 11:25:-26) Y entonces ella creyó, y así encontró vida por siempre...

“ Hermosa, Dios abre sus brazos para recibirte con amor, descansa en Paz y que brille tu luz perpetua, para un ser maravilloso como eres. Hablo en presente porque te quedas en los sentimientos y recuerdos en tu familia que te ama. Un beso al cielo

“ 14 years ago, my wife and I stepped into L'Arte Bianco, a Peruvian Bakery owned by Rafael and Reyhanneh. Little did we know that we would become dear and close friends through the years. I will never forget Reyhanneh's hospitality and serving-spirit that demonstrated the love of God toward people. It was even more striking as she made an extra effort to greet and care for our special needs daughter. Thanks for the wonderful Persian food you served us in your warm home and for gracing us with your presence in our home for a Korean meal. Our bond has been even more special through the years because of our kindred spirits in the Lord, your qualities of sharing her struggles and being open in the good and hard times. Though this life here on earth is like a vapor or a fleeting moment, we feel the absence of our dear friend and can't even imagine the void that Rafa, Amanda and Joshua are feeling. Our hearts go out to the Bautista family and we want to extend our hearts as we are truly family. Reyhanneh's passing only reminds us of the reality of eternity, and we await the day of once again reuniting with Reyhanneh and celebrating the glory of our Father together! This is not "goodbye", but "see you soon!"

“ Khaleh Reyhaneh, I will miss you. You perfectly embodied kindness, warmth, and affection.

Thank you for the wonderful times we spent together. I remember sitting at the dining table at Amoo's house learning English together more than 25 years ago. I'd get excited each time you brought home pastries from your baking classes or your first job at Costco. To this day, every time I walk into a bakery brings back those happy memories.

Your commitment to your craft left a strong impression on me as a young boy. I recall your focus from age 16 on - you were a woman on a mission! I'm happy (and filled with pride) that your dedication, alongside that of Rafael Jan's, paid off. I'll always remember visiting your stores in Florida. Together you proved that success is no accident!

I'm so glad to have met your wonderful children and that you met (and danced with) Linda at our wedding. Though our times together were short in recent years, our bond never wavered. The early friendship we forged outlasted both time and distance. I suspect that's how most people feel about you.

It is said the measure of our impact is how many histories must include our name? Your name will always be in mine. And I'm sure in the many others lucky enough to have been in your orbit

Gone, but never really gone. Rest easy Khaleh.

My deepest condolences to the Bautista and Moghaddam families.

Love,
Karoon

“ I remembered meeting Reyhaney 14 years ago, and it was so easy to become friends almost immediately. Her sweet spirit and special grace was very obvious. In the midst of a busy schedule at the library she agreed to hold hands and pray together to God tge Father about personal petitions and bussiness ones. It was so rewarding to see her heart trusting as a child. Years pass and we continue our friendship and we will always be grateful for that. My dear and beautiful friend, when I get to heaven we will hold hands again this time with Jesus to praise Him for eternity. Love you always!!! Connie Whang

“ We are heartbroken at the loss of Reyhaneh. She and Rafael married in Los Angeles (date?) and they were so happy. They lived in Burbank for a long time and I remember Reyhaneh worked at Costco bakery. Bakeries are always present in our lives. Reyhaneh was always so welcoming when we came into her home. She would prepare so many delicious foods from her country. We spent very many fun holidays and birthdays together. We miss her so much.
